

2021 WATERBROOK DRAWING PRIZE

JUDGE: Jane Cush

1st PRIZE

No: 31

Sonja Bowden

Nature's Undertaker

Judge's Comments: "The skill in this exquisite drawing in colour pencil are extraordinary. The subject matter is unusual and contrasts strongly with the softly drawn feathers comprising this majestic vulture."

2nd PRIZE

No: 16

Patrice Cooke

Seaweed Study

Judge's Comments: "Exquisitely detailed drawing on a well chosen background. Although highly detailed it has a sense of movement like seaweed swirling in the sea."

HIGHLY COMMENDED

No: 7

Remnim Alexander Tayco

Horizon

Judge's Comments: "Beautiful rhythm and movement in the mark making. This work speaks to a field of grass, clouds or the sea."

HIGHLY COMMENDED

No: 8

Lily Cummins

Shroud

Judge's Comments: "What captured me in this work is the sense of landscape – we are all – even when dead or perhaps more so – a part of the land. A powerful drawing that speaks to death of the land and ultimately us."

COMMENDED

No: 39

Bob Lenton

Shaz's Kitchen

Judge's Comments: "I love the loose and open playful use of line and the simple black lines in this domestic scene."

COMMENDED

No: 19

Phillip Russell

Many Branches but One Tree

Judge's Comments: "A beautiful intense drawing that draws the viewer in to its depth and beauty. A work of our covid times – we are all in this together."

COMMENDED

No: 40

Olivia Arnold

Hipwood Street at Dusk

Judge's Comments: "I really like the mark making used to capture the golden light spreading through the image, imparting a dreamy feel and ambience through the window to the garden outside."
